5.4 If the Notice is refused by the Respondent or undelivered for any reason, or the Respondent, having accepted service of the Notice, does not register on the Portal within the period prescribed in the Notice, the arbitration shall proceed ex-parte.

6. Response to the Request for Arbitration

6.1 Upon receipt of the Notice or otherwise having knowledge or information about the commencement of the arbitration, the Respondent (along with Respondent's Lawyers) should login to the Portal using the instructions mentioned in the Notice.

CHAPTER III: ARBITRAL TRIBUNAL AND ARBITRATOR

7. Appointment of Arbitrator by SME (Subject Matter Experts)

7.1 Appointment of Arbitrator Where a Prior Arbitration Agreement Exists Where the parties have entered into a prior arbitration agreement containing a specific clause providing for the reference of disputes between them to an arbitrator or an arbitral tribunal, and a dispute arises pursuant to such agreement, the parties shall first be entitled to appoint the arbitrator or constitute the arbitral tribunal in accordance with the procedure mutually agreed upon between them. Where both parties fail to mutually agree upon or appoint an arbitrator, or otherwise fail to constitute the arbitral tribunal in accordance with the agreed procedure, Bharat Nyay may facilitate the appointment of an independent and impartial arbitrator or the constitution of an independent and impartial arbitral tribunal, subject to the terms of the arbitration agreement, the applicable provisions of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996, and other applicable laws. Any appointment facilitated by Bharat Nyay shall be subject to the parties' arbitration agreement, the applicable statutory appointment procedure, and the requirements of independence, impartiality, and disclosure of circumstances that may give rise to justifiable doubts regarding the arbitrator's independence or impartiality. Nothing in this provision shall be construed as overriding a mandatory statutory procedure for the appointment of an arbitrator or as conferring upon Bharat Nyay any power that is not available to it under the arbitration agreement or applicable law.

7.2 Unless agreed by the parties, the Arbitral Tribunal shall comprise a sole arbitrator appointed by the SME (Subject Matter Experts). The SME (Subject Matter Experts) shall appoint the arbitrator from the Bharat Nyay Panel while having due regard to:

7.2.1 the nature and circumstances of the Dispute;

7.2.2 the nationality and location of the parties;

7.2.3 any qualifications required of the arbitrator by the agreement of the parties;

7.2.4 the arbitrator's availability and ability to conduct the arbitration promptly and efficiently; and

7.2.5 other considerations that ensure that the arbitrator is independent and impartial.

8. Appointment of Arbitrator by the parties

8.1 If the parties have agreed that an arbitrator is to be appointed by one or more of the parties to the Dispute, or by arbitrators already appointed, then such agreement shall be treated as an agreement to nominate an arbitrator under the Bharat Nyay Arbitration Rules.

8.2 The parties may nominate their arbitrators in the Request for Arbitration, Response or separately on the Portal in the following manner:

8.2.1 if a sole arbitrator is to be appointed, either party may propose to the other the names of one or more persons, one of whom would serve as the sole arbitrator. The parties shall then have to agree on the sole arbitrator within 5 days, failing which the SME (Subject Matter Experts) shall appoint the sole arbitrator from the Bharat Nyay Panel; or

8.2.2 if three arbitrators are to be appointed, the Claimant and Respondent shall each nominate one arbitrator. The presiding arbitrator shall then be nominated by the party-appointed arbitrators within 5 days, failing which the SME (Subject Matter Experts) shall appoint the presiding arbitrator from the Bharat Nyay Panel.

9. Constitution of the Arbitral Tribunal

9.1 The SME (Subject Matter Experts) shall appoint the arbitrators under Rule 7 or 8 above within 7 days of receiving the Response or the parties nominations. If the SME (Subject Matter Experts) does not receive a Response or the parties nominations, then it shall appoint the arbitrators promptly after the period to file a Response has elapsed.

9.2 Every Arbitrator conducting the arbitration under the Bharat Nyay Arbitration Rules shall be and remain at all times independent and impartial, and shall not act as an advocate for any party whether or not nominated by the parties. No Arbitrator shall advise any party or comment on the merits, or outcome, of the Dispute.

9.3 Before appointment or confirmation, the Arbitrator shall confirm on the Portal that the Arbitrator is independent, impartial and available to act as an arbitrator on the Dispute.

9.4 An Arbitrator shall immediately disclose to the parties, and to the other Arbitrators (as well as to the SME (Subject Matter Experts)), any circumstances which may arise at any time during the arbitration which may give rise to justifiable doubts as to the Arbitrator's impartiality or independence.

9.5 No party or anyone acting on its behalf shall, at any time, have any ex-parte communication relating to the Dispute with the Arbitral Tribunal.

9.6 After appointment, the Arbitrator will have access to the Case on the Portal. The terms of appointment of the Arbitrator shall be fixed by the SME (Subject Matter Experts).

9.7 By accepting appointment, the Arbitrator undertakes to carry out his/her responsibilities in accordance with the Bharat Nyay Arbitration Rules.

10. Challenge to appointment of arbitrator

10.1 If any of the parties decides to challenge the appointment of the Arbitrator, whether for an alleged lack of impartiality or independence or otherwise, it shall do so within 5 days of it having been notified about the Arbitrator specifying: (a) the grounds on which the Arbitrator has been challenged; and (b) suggestions for an alternate arbitrator.

10.2 If an Arbitrator is challenged, the SME (Subject Matter Experts) shall decide on the challenge application within 5 days and take appropriate steps to change the Arbitrator (if required). While deciding on the challenge of an Arbitrator, it may give the other parties an opportunity of making representations.

CHAPTER IV: PROCEEDINGS

11. Validity of the Arbitration Agreement

11.1 The Arbitral Tribunal shall have the power to determine the existence and validity of an Arbitration Agreement and their jurisdiction over the Dispute.

13.1.2 the legal grounds or arguments supporting the claim;

13.1.3 the relief claimed, together with the amount of all quantifiable claims; and

13.2 The Claimant may make claims arising out of or in connection with more than one agreement in a single arbitration.

14. Statements of Defence and Counterclaim

14.1 After receipt of the Statement of Claim, the Respondent shall, within a period of time to be determined by the Arbitral Tribunal, serve a Statement of Defence using the Portal. The Statement of Defence must set out the Respondent's defence to the Statement of Claim, including a statement of facts and submissions on legal issues. The Statement of Defence must include any counterclaim, which shall comply with the requirements of Rule 15 above.

14.2 If the Statement of Claim was accompanied by witness-of-fact statements from the Claimant, then the Statements of Defence and Counterclaim should also be accompanied by any witness- of-fact statements from the Respondent.

14.3 If a counterclaim is submitted by the Respondent, the Claimant shall, within a period of time to be determined by the Arbitral Tribunal, send to the Respondent a Defence to Counterclaim setting out its full defence to the counterclaim, including, without limitation, a statement of facts and contentions of law on which it relies.

15. Additional Pleadings

15.1 Failure of any party to submit the Statement of Claim, Statement of Defence or other pleadings will not automatically result in a delay to the arbitration proceedings.

15.2 The Arbitral Tribunal along with the parties shall decide if any pleadings (after the exchange of the Statement of Claim, Statement of Defence and a Defence to Counterclaim, as applicable) are required. If additional pleadings are required, the Arbitral Tribunal shall fix the period of time for exchanging such pleadings.

16. Evidence

16.1 The Arbitral Tribunal may conduct proceedings in the manner it considers appropriate, including in determining the admissibility, relevance, materiality and weight of any evidence submitted by the parties.

16.2 At any time during the arbitration, the Arbitral Tribunal may at the request of a party or on its own motion, order a party to produce such documents or other evidence as it considers necessary or appropriate and may order a party to make available to the Arbitral Tribunal or the other party, any property in its possession or control for inspection or testing.

16.3 If the parties are submitting reports and opinions from independent experts or the Arbitral Tribunal appoints an independent expert to assist it on certain disputed issues, then the Arbitral Tribunal shall decide a procedural timetable for the reports to be submitted as well as issue directions on how it intends to treat expert evidence.

17. Hearings

17.1 The Arbitral Tribunal may, with the consent of all the parties participating in the proceedings, issue the Award without any hearing.

17.2 If a hearing takes place, it shall be conducted exclusively on the Portal. If any party requires a physical and in-person hearing, it shall make an application to the Arbitral Tribunal and provide reasons. The Arbitral Tribunal shall decide the application after providing the other party an opportunity to respond to the application.

17.3 No party shall record the hearings or have them independently transcribed without the express permission of the other party and the Arbitral Tribunal. If either party objects to such recording, the decision of the Arbitral Tribunal shall be final.

17.4 The Arbitral Tribunal shall control the hearing at which all the parties are entitled to be present. Except with the approval of the Arbitral Tribunal, persons not involved in the proceedings cannot attend the hearings on the Portal.

18. Conduct of Proceedings

18.1 The Arbitral Tribunal may conduct the arbitration in such manner as it considers appropriate to ensure the avoidance of unnecessary delay and expense, having regard to the complexity of the issues involved and the amount in dispute, and provided that such procedures ensure fair and equal treatment of the parties and afford the parties a reasonable opportunity to present their case.

18.2 The proceedings will be conducted entirely on the Portal including audio-video or audio-only hearings and exchange of correspondence.

18.3 The parties and the Arbitral Tribunal shall use the cloud storage and virtual arbitration room on the Portal to exchange and store documents.

18.4 The Arbitral Tribunal, after consulting the parties, may adopt procedural measures or modify existing directions from time to time.

18.6 In all matters not expressly provided for in the Bharat Nyay Arbitration Rules, the SME (Subject Matter Experts) and the Arbitral Tribunal shall act in the spirit of the Bharat Nyay Arbitration Rules and shall make every effort to make sure that the Award is enforceable at law.

24.2 The Arbitral Tribunal shall endeavor to render its final Award within 12 months from the date of commencement of the arbitration. If it becomes apparent to the Arbitral Tribunal that the final Award cannot be rendered within 12 months, it shall promptly notify the parties and the SME (Subject Matter Experts) in writing, with brief reasons, of the estimated length of time required for the Arbitral Tribunal to render its final Award.

24.3 The Award shall be in writing and signed by the Arbitral Tribunal.

24.4 The Award shall include detailed reasons upon which it is based.
